

The Denver Cup
Inter-Club Team Championship
Hosted by The Overland Park Men's Club
September 17 & 18, 2016

FORMAT

Each club shall field a team consisting of 16 players:

- (4) 'A' players playing Medal
- (4) 'B' players playing Medal
- (4) 'C' players playing two 2-man Best Ball
- (4) 'D' players playing two 2-man Scramble

The lowest 3 scores are counted for each 'A' and 'B' teams.

Both best ball team scores are counted for each 'C' team.

Both scramble team scores are counted for each 'D' team.

There is no adjustment of scores for handicap.

ELIGIBILITY

Each team member must be a regular club member and have played in at least three club tournaments and have a USGA/CGA handicap. The purpose of the Denver Cup tradition is to represent each men's club and enjoy the camaraderie with other clubs.

Current USGA (CGA) handicaps will be used for qualifying.

There is no handicap restriction for A players.

B players must have a handicap of 6.0 or greater

C players must have a handicap of 10.0 or greater

D players must have a handicap of 14.0 or greater

The September 1st USGA/CGA handicap revisions will be the "Official" handicap listing for each club.

PAYOFFS

Sixty per cent (60%) of the player's pool will go to the Denver Cup Champion club.

Forty per cent (40%) of the player's pool will be equally divided among the A, B, C and D teams with the lowest two-day scores (excluding those teams from the winning club).

Skins pots for each flight will be $100.00 per day

Closest-to-the-pin holes will be worth $50.00 per day (all 4 par-three holes).

TROPHY

The Denver Cup Champion club shall be presented the Denver Cup trophy, have their club name engraved on it and retain it on display for one year.

TIES

In the event of a tie for first place, the fourth player's scores of the A flight from Sunday will be added; if there is still a tie, then the fourth player's score from the B flight on Sunday will be added to each of the teams' scores. In the event there should still be a tie, the Saturday scores for the fourth A player; then the Saturday score for the fourth B player will be added. If there should still be a tie, the best score on the back nine holes, etc., will be used according to CGA playoff rules.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

In the event that weather forbids play on either day of play, the Tournament Director and a representative of the course shall meet to determine a course of action.

LOCAL RULES

Overland Park's Local Rules for this event are provided on a separate page. Players are deemed to have read and understood these Local Rules. Questions regarding the Local Rules shall be directed to any Overland Park Men's Club Tournament Committee.

STARTING TIMES

Players shall start at the time indicated on the pairing sheet. A player arriving late, but ready to play within 5 minutes after his starting time, shall be assessed a two-stroke penalty, which will apply to his individual score (A and B players). A "C" or "D" player arriving late will be allowed to join his partner, but holes already completed will count as played by the lone player, without benefit of two balls in play. Substitutions may be allowed, as long as handicaps are verified and fall within the limits for flights. Players shall play in the group assigned.
